BUSINESS STRATEGY

16 - 18 December 2026
Thailand

This intensive course delivers a comprehensive foundation in business strategy, equipping professionals with the tools to analyze markets, align internal capabilities, and drive long-term competitive advantage. Participants will explore strategic models, organisational alignment, growth options, and the evolving role of leadership in shaping strategy.

Overview

Designed for decision-makers and emerging strategists, this course offers practical frameworks and insights to formulate, evaluate, and adapt business strategies. From internal analysis to competitive positioning, participants will learn to lead strategy in a dynamic and global business environment.

Upon completion, participants will:

- Gain fluency in classic and modern strategic models (e.g., SWOT, BCG, Porter's 5 Forces)
- Learn to align structure, culture, and capabilities with long-term objectives
- Build adaptable strategies for growth, partnerships, and market resilience.

Who should attend

- Business leaders, functional heads, and strategic planners
- Consultants and professionals involved in business transformation or growth
- Senior executives looking to sharpen strategic thinking and execution

Methodology

Highly interactive delivery through strategic simulations, real-world case analysis, structured planning tools, and peer discussions. Focused on practical strategy design and application in complex environments..

Trainer

Facilitated by a strategy consultant with over 25 years of experience advising multinational corporations, startups, and government agencies. The trainer brings a global perspective and deep industry insight, with previous leadership roles in corporate planning and strategic development.
